Marsha's report - Senior Programs

Book reading in March

Memorial for Dorothy Biondi - April 26, 6 - 9 PM: Reception with music food, unveiling of a plaque to be mounted in the Center.

Friends of Guy Mason contributed to Dorothy's initiatives ($300 per quarter) and will likely continue to fund senior programs through Marsha in 2019 (to be voted on at the next meeting with quorum)

Dog Park

The dog park haws been flooding. The French drain is not working properly

David and Jeanne have been sending emails to DGS and DPR

Rich Harrington of the Mayor's office called David to assure him that this will be addressed.

Treasurer's Report - Meg Markham

Checking: $19,429

Recent expenses (landscaping for Dec and Sept): $1895

The Fundraiser

Fundraiser Estimate: ~$21,000

Income: ~$24,000+

Expenses:

~$1300 invitations (printing)

~$100 posters

~$250 PayPal fees

~$300 postage

~$475 music

Total attendees: ~75

David's comments:

A lot of questions from party attendees about what we do. They wanted to know what would happen if all of the money was spent on programming instead of grounds upkeep. David suggested that we continue to plan more programs to maintain the community outreach.
